EXAMINATION DEVELOPMENT

Eight examination development workshops were conducted from April 1, 2022 through June 30, 2022. Three passing score workshops were in person at the Office of Professional Exam Administrators office in Sacramento, CA. Five exam development workshops were done remotely.

As a result of the 2nd and 3rd quarter recruitment efforts, 73 licensees submitted interest in becoming SMEs. As of the date of this report, 43 of those have completed the contract process.

NATIONAL BOARD OF PROFESSIONAL CLINICAL COUNSELORS (NBCC)

NBCC administers the National Clinical Mental Health Counseling Exam (NCMHCE) and is transitioning to a new format in the Fall. The new format for the NCMHCE will emphasize the long-term, ongoing therapeutic process of the counseling relationship. Please see Attachment B-NCMHCE comparison chart for additional information about the changes. Board staff have asked OPES to complete a review of the changes.

An alert has been added to the Board's main webpage and a posting to LPCC exam section of our website. A notification was sent to those individuals who subscribe for e-mail alerts. Notices have also been posted to our FaceBook, Instagram, and Twitter social media pages. At the end of September, a second notification will be sent to those individuals who subscribe for e-mail alerts as well as on our social media pages.

With the introduction of the new format, NBCC will provide OnVue testing. OnVue testing will allow candidates to take the exam in the privacy of their home.

ASSOCIATION OF SOCIAL WORK BOARDS (ASWB) CLINICAL EXAM REVIEW

The Board of Behavioral Sciences (Board) requested that DCA's Office of Professional Examination Services (OPES) complete a comprehensive review of the Clinical Examination developed by ASWB. OPES performed this review in order to evaluate the suitability of using the Clinical Examination for licensure of clinical social workers in California. The report was completed in May 2022. Please see Attachment C-ASWB National Review Executive Summary.

OPES found that the procedures used to establish and support the validity and defensibility of the components listed above meet professional guidelines and technical standards outlined in the Standards for Educational and Psychological Testing (2014) (Standards) and in California Business and Professions (B&P) Code § 139. However, to fully comply with B&P Code § 139 and related DCA Policy OPES 20-01 Participation in Examination Development Workshops (OPES 20-01), OPES recommends phasing out the service of educators in examination development processes.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF MARRIAGE AND FAMILY THERPIST REGULATORY BOARDS CLINICAL EXAM REVIEW

The Board requested that DCA's Office of Professional Examination Services (OPES) review the Association of Marital and Family Therapy Regulatory Boards' (AMFTRB) Marital and Family Therapy National Examination (MFT National Examination). OPES performed this review to evaluate the suitability of the MFT National Examination for use in California licensure of marriage and family therapists.

The findings were discussed during the Board's August 11, 2022, closed session and will be further discussed at the November 2022 Board meeting during open session. Please see Attachment D-OPES AMFTRB review summary.

LPCC LAW AND ETHICS EXAM

A new version of the LPCC law and ethics exam was uploaded to the exam vendor, Pearson Vue, in May 2022. The Office of Professional Examination Services (OPES) did a routine statistical analysis which resulted in a review of the exam.

The result of the statistical analysis determined a rescore of the exam was necessary for the 157 candidates who attempted the exam between May 1, 2022 and June 3, 2022. All candidates reflected a failed attempt for the exam.

Upon completion of the OPES review, 126 scores were adjusted from fail to pass. The remaining 31 attempts remained as a fail. All 157 candidates were notified by e-mail of the statistical analysis and rescore.

A corrected version of the exam was uploaded to Pearson Vue and available for those candidates taking the exam June 4, 2022 and forward.

COVID-19 EXAM WAIVERS

In March 2020, Governor Newsom declared a State of Emergency to exist in California as a result of the threat of COVID-19. With this declaration, Executive Order N-39-20 was issued on March 30, 2020.

Based on Executive Order N-39-20, the Department of Consumer Affairs issued waivers, DCA-20-26, DCA-20-68, DCA-20-79, DCA-21-106, DCA-21-130, DCA-21-154, DCA-21-174, and DCA-21-196. This was for candidates whose eligibility expired between March 31, 2020 and October 31, 2021.

These waivers applied to those LCSW, LEP, LMFT, or LPCC candidates in the clinical or written exam cycle and to those non-registrant candidates in the law and ethics exam cycle 20-months instead of 12-months from the date of initial approval or a failed exam to re-take the exam.

As of June 30, 2022, all waiver extensions have ended.

Comparison: Old and New Examination Formats

	Old Format	New Format
Availability	Certification candidates: until Spring 2022 Licensure candidates: until October 2022	Certification candidates: beginning Fall 2022 Licensure candidates: beginning November 2022
Examination Description	Ten (10) clinical simulations designed with a focus on clinical decision-making. Each simulation is divided into 5–10 sections classified as either Information Gathering or Decision-Making.	Eleven (11) case studies designed to replicate the actual work of a clinical mental health counselor, working with a client over time, through intake and in clinical sessions. The case studies are designed to capture an examinee’s ability to identify, analyze, diagnose, develop, and implement plans for treatment of clinical concerns. Each case study includes one narrative and 13 multiple-choice questions.
What content is measured?	The examination covers the following content areas: Assessment and Diagnosis; Counseling and Psychotherapy; and Administration, Consultation, and Supervision.	The examination covers the following content areas based on the new Content Outline : Professional Practice and Ethics; Intake, Assessment, and Diagnosis; Treatment Planning; Counseling Skills and Interventions; and Core Counseling Attributes.
Duration	195 minutes	260 minutes
Number of Items on a Test Form	350–500	143

REVIEW OF THE ASSOCIATION OF SOCIAL WORK BOARDS CLINICAL EXAMINATION

May 2022

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Licensing boards and bureaus within the California Department of Consumer Affairs (DCA) are required to ensure that examination programs used in California licensure comply with psychometric and legal standards. To become a licensed clinical social worker (LCSW) in California, a candidate must have the requisite education and experience and pass two examinations:

1. The California LCSW Law and Ethics Examination
2. The Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) Clinical Examination

The Board of Behavioral Sciences (Board) requested that DCA's Office of Professional Examination Services (OPES) complete a comprehensive review of its examination program. This report is a review of the Clinical Examination developed by ASWB. OPES performed this review in order to evaluate the suitability of using the Clinical Examination for licensure of clinical social workers in California.

ASWB develops and administers the Clinical Examination, a national examination that measures knowledge related to the competencies required for safe, entry level practice as a clinical social worker. This examination is required by all clinical social work licensing agencies in the United States. According to the ASWB Exam Candidate Handbook (2022), the Clinical Examination is one of five ASWB social worker examinations: Associate, Bachelors, Masters, Advanced Generalist, and Clinical.

OPES, in collaboration with the Board, reviewed a report provided by ASWB on the occupational analysis (OA) of the social work profession that was conducted in 2015–2016. In addition, OPES reviewed other reports and documents provided by ASWB regarding practices and procedures used to develop and validate the Clinical Examination. OPES performed a comprehensive evaluation of the documents to determine whether the following Clinical Examination components met professional guidelines and technical standards: (a) OA, (b) examination development and scoring, (c) passing scores and passing rates, (d) test administration and score reporting, and (e) test security procedures. Follow-up emails were also exchanged with ASWB representatives to clarify processes.

OPES found that the procedures used to establish and support the validity and defensibility of the components listed above meet professional guidelines and technical standards outlined in the Standards for Educational and Psychological Testing (2014) (Standards) and in California Business and Professions (B&P) Code § 139. However, to fully comply with B&P Code § 139 and related DCA Policy OPES 20-01 Participation in Examination Development Workshops (OPES 20-01), OPES recommends phasing out the service of educators in examination development processes.

In addition to reviewing documents provided by ASWB, OPES test specialists convened a workshop of California LCSWs in November 2021. The LCSWs served as subject matter experts (SMEs) to review the content of the Clinical Examination. The SMEs were selected to represent the profession in terms of geographic location and experience. The purpose of the review was to link the content of the Clinical Examination blueprint to the California LCSW description of practice that resulted from the 2021 Occupational Analysis of the Licensed Clinical Social Worker Profession (2021 California LCSW OA) performed by OPES. During this workshop, the SMEs linked the tasks and knowledge statements from the California description of practice to the examination content of the Clinical Examination. The linkage study was performed to identify whether there were areas of California clinical social work practice that are not measured by the Clinical Examination.

The results of the linkage study indicated that the competencies associated with all the practice areas included in the California LCSW description of practice were adequately linked to the content of the Clinical Examination, except ethical standards and California laws and regulations. The SMEs indicated that ethical standards and California laws and regulations should continue to be measured by the California LCSW Law and Ethics Examination.

MEMORANDUM

DATE	August 1, 2022
TO	Steve Sodergren, Executive Officer California Board of Behavioral Sciences
FROM	 Heidi Lincer, Ph.D., Chief Office of Professional Examination Services
SUBJECT	Review of the Marital and Family Therapy National Examination

As mandated by Business and Professions (B&P) Code § 139, and Department of Consumer Affairs (DCA) Policy OPES 18-02 Licensure Examination Validation, all licensure examinations must demonstrate validity and meet accepted professional guidelines and technical standards. This mandate applies to both state-specific and national examinations. Failure to establish this validation evidence jeopardizes the fairness and legal defensibility of examination programs.

To comply with this mandate, the California Board of Behavioral Sciences (Board) requested that DCA's Office of Professional Examination Services (OPES) review the Association of Marital and Family Therapy Regulatory Boards' (AMFTRB) Marital and Family Therapy National Examination (MFT National Examination). OPES performed this review to evaluate the suitability of the MFT National Examination for use in California licensure of marriage and family therapists.

OPES performed a comprehensive evaluation of documents provided by AMFTRB to determine whether the following components met professional guidelines and technical standards: (a) occupational analysis, (b) examination development and scoring, (c) passing scores and passing rates, (d) test administration, and (e) test security procedures. Follow-up emails were also exchanged with AMFTRB representatives to clarify processes.

As documented in the enclosed report, OPES found that the procedures used to establish and support the validity and defensibility of the components listed above generally meet professional guidelines and technical standards outlined in the Standards for Educational and Psychological Testing (2014 Standards) and in B&P Code § 139.

The enclosed report outlines differences between the MFT National Examination and the California LMFT Written Clinical Examination. The differences mainly reflect variations in measurement scope and administration. That is, national examinations test broad competencies related to practice, whereas state examinations test competencies specific to practice within California. OPES is available to discuss these differences during closed session at the Board meeting on August 11–12, 2022. OPES must adhere to the nondisclosure agreement with AMFTRB and cannot disclose details in open session.

OPES acknowledges the role of national examinations in regulatory licensing and recognizes the importance of portability in addressing the mental health needs of Californians. OPES works with DCA's boards to facilitate portability and remove barriers to practice wherever possible. OPES applauds the Board's efforts to be responsive to stakeholders and prevent barriers to licensure, while maintaining focus on validating examination programs and preserving consumer protection.

based on shortened licensing evaluation timeframes and new phone system changes. The data for this report continues to show that what has been reported as a trend is now the normal call volume.

Pathway to Licensure Videos

Board staff have completed the draft scripts for the following videos:

- Seven Steps to Licensure: This video describes the basic steps that all applicants will have to complete to become licensed as a LMFT, LCSW or LPCC
- LMFT Degree Requirements: This video describes in more detail the LMFT education requirements.
- LCSW Degree Requirement: This video describes in more detail the LMFT education requirements.

DCA’s Office of Public Affairs is currently working on designing and voicing these videos. Currently, there are twelve proposed videos to be developed.

BREEZE SYSTEM UPDATES

During the last quarter, staff worked with the Office of Information Services (OIS) to complete approximately 17 updates to the Breeze system which included changes to automated letters. Currently, there are 39 updates waiting to be developed and implemented. Additionally, staff has completed testing and passed a system change that creates a new transaction and modifier that will allow supervisors to complete the required Supervisor Self-Assessment form online. This will be available on Breeze soon.

LISTENING SESSIONS

In June Board staff distributed a telehealth listening session online survey. The intent of this survey was to collect information on stakeholders' thoughts related to telehealth and to identify areas of concern. This survey also allowed stakeholders to express interest in presenting during the telehealth listening session planned for September 2022.

Of the 1,211 survey responses, 30 responders noted that they would be willing to present during the session. After an initial review of the survey responses, staff noted that there was a broad range of interest concerning Telehealth generally. However, the majority of the offers to present did not address specific concerns or problems, but rather offered to share telehealth benefits generally as well as offer suggestions for best practices.

Based on this, staff believes some of these presenters may be able to assist and provide their expertise in two specific topic areas that the Committee will be focusing on: the development of a best practice document, and an examination of existing and emerging types of telehealth platforms. Staff will be reaching out to those who offered to present in order to determine their specific areas of expertise, and to determine how best to utilize their knowledge to assist the Committee in its discussions of these topic areas.

PROCESS IMPROVEMENT PROJECT

Staff has worked with DCA's Organizational Improvement Office (OIO) to complete the As-Is mapping of forty of the board's workflow processes. OIO and Board staff will begin working on completing the Could-Be maps. The Could-Be maps will determine will process improvements can be made.

DIGITIZING RECORDS

The DCA's Records Imaging Service Unit is currently performing a test run to ensure the scanning and indexing process will work for the Board. Once the process has been approved, Board staff will begin to submit files to the Records Imaging Service Unit on a continually basis. Additionally, Board management has discussing ways to perform some of the scanning duties in house.
